October 2021 News by Steve Lillis

GTS Live Summer 2021 Summary—Gospel Trick Shot started back live this past June after being in isolation for 18 months since the outbreak of COVID-19 in March of 2020. The summer started with a trip to the Midwest in late June to do GTS shows and partner with GTS Vice President Pastor Michael Hewitt in Indiana, Pro Artistic Pool player Brian Pauley in Ohio, and new partner Rusty Bernard also in Ohio. Four GTS shows were also done at the Monmouth Park Racetrack in South Jersey partnering with Down the Stretch Ministries Chaplain Donny Christopher where many migrant workers gave their hearts to Jesus. GTS Shows were also done in Upstate New York at a Joss 9-Ball event in July and Atlantic City, NJ in September for the homeless partnering with an inner-city church. Right after Steve Lillis played in the prestigious U.S. Open 9-Ball Championships in Harrah's on the Atlantic City Boardwalk with 256 of the World's best pool players. Steve played competitively for the first-time pain free since his fall down a flight of stairs over one year ago last August 2020. He even managed to win a match in the tournament as road partner Mike Martin and good friend Mohammad Ali Berjaoui the number one player from Lebanon were all roommates at the event.

GTS Live Fall 2021 Preview—The first week of October features Mike Martin and Steve Lillis traveling back to upstate New York for another Joss 9-Ball event and GTS shows. The second week in Lynchburg, VA, Brian Pauley and Tom "Dr. Cue" Rossman will direct the 2021 National Artistic Pool Championships with a GTS show and with Gospel Trick Shot and Dr. Cue Promotions as the primary sponsors. Then the last 10 days of October Steve Lillis, Mike Martin, Michael Hewitt, Mike Massey, Tommy Kennedy, and Mohammad Ali Berjaoui will all rendezvous in Norfolk, VA for the International 9-Ball Open Championships with a GTS Booth open to all for the entire tournament. Please pray!
