Gospel Trick Shot January 2022 - Spain/Africa/Local Recap

Recap of December 2021 – The GTS Spain Team including RACK Team members Mike Hewitt, Tom “Dr. Cue” Rossman, and Marcell Kaiser with a total of 6 helpers toured the Iberian Peninsula doing GTS shows in Cadiz and Madrid while partnering with three churches. Last report a total of 16 people made first time decisions for Christ and are attending church under the leadership of Pastor Marcos of the Oleum Church in Cadiz. This truly was a team effort both here at home in the USA and abroad with all the logistics necessities and COVID restrictions. The trip was hybrid and was viewed live around the world on Facebook. The outreaches and church services are posted on our GTSRACK Rooms Facebook page for your viewing pleasure. Just prior to this GTS Spain trip Tom Rossman and Steve Lillis did two GTS shows here in New Jersey with one at the Bethel Ranch a shelter for homeless men and the other at Rockaway Billiards in Rockaway, NJ. Here is the link below to view the Rockaway Billiards Show: <https://www.facebook.com/RockawayBilliardsNew/videos/400529955107793/>

We had our second Africa Zoom meeting this past month as we are hoping to plant billiard cafes in 7 different Sub Saharan African countries with 9 different churches. Last month we had a Pakistani pastor share how he uses pool/billiard/snooker ministry in his home church in Pakistan. He set up a snooker tournament for the youth at a local club and then after the event shared the Gospel. Three young people came to Christ at that event

The African churches came to GTS after Steve Lillis presented the Gospel Trick Shot billiard café vision at a (LMM) Legacy Minded Men’s conference with African pastors this past October.

Pool/billiard/snooker ministry will help build the LMM groups who specialize in discipleship in their local churches. We also have two churches in North Africa with one in Morocco and another in Tunisia and two in Spain in Madrid and Cadiz interested as well. We need a total $15,000 to supply each participating church with a pool table and equipment.

At this recent meeting the African church pastors shared logistical billiard information and their ministry vision for their respective countries. Items like level of interest in pool, the price of pool tables and equipment, and how to do local outreach in their respective pool rooms and billiard cafes was discussed. Wayne Parker, our GTS/RACK Team representative in South Africa, invited an administrator of the All-Africa Pool Association (AAPA) to join us as he shared some helpful information. The pastors were also given teaching tools to learn how to play pool by Tom "Dr. Cue" Rossman and how to do Gospel Trick Shots by Steve Lillis.

Finally, we had our GTS Annual Board Meeting on Zoom in December which included a recap of 2021. GTS was in shut down mode for the first half of the year because of COVID and slowly began to open back up during the summer. By September we were back in full swing with 20 volunteers helping around the country and overseas. We had a total of 41 salvations with discipleship in place at each venue.

Steve and Camille Lillis Holiday Family Update - Our daughter Amanda is back teaching public school here in New Jersey after six-month leave to have our newest grandchild Robert John DuMont and husband Tim is on two-month paternity leave from his job as a missionary with Shiloh Bible Camp here in New Jersey. Our other daughter Sarah and husband Gregg live nearby and are busy with our other grandchildren Jayden (13), Isabelle (6), and Chloe (4) and their dog walking 🐕 and doggy sitting business🐾. Camille and I are doing great in the Lord and continue serving with GTS by the grace of God! Thank you, Jesus! Blessings to your precious families and friends🙌! Merry Christmas 🎄 and a Happy and Blessed New Year!

Year End Giving – If you get your tax-deductible gift to GTS by 12/31/21 on PayPal or postmarked by 12/31/21 in the USPS mail your gift will be included on your tax-deductible year end statement that will be mailed next month from GTS. According to the CARES ACT of 2020 there are new tax deduction limits for the individual of 100% on your 2021 Adjusted Gross Income and 25% for corporations on their 2021 taxable income. Check with your accountant for more information. Thank you for your continued giving! May God prosper you and give you good health in New Year 2022!
